

EDWARD SPEAKS TO PARLIAMENT

Brilliant Pageant at the Opening of the Session Today.

FULL COURT DRESS

Speech from the Throne Did Not Contain Any Startling Surprises.

RAIN AND RAW MIST

London, Jan. 16.—Parliament opened today under adverse weather conditions, rain and raw mist marring the beauty of the usual pageant. At ten thirty o'clock the sergeant-at-arms with a company of retainers performed the ancient ceremony of searching the parliamentary cellars for Guy Fawkes conspirators.

The Royal Procession
The route from Marlborough house from which the royal procession started to the parliament building was lined with troops. Peers and peeresses in full court dress, arrived early at the home of the lords. Among them were the Prince and Princess of Wales.

The royal cavalcade moved at ten thirty o'clock. The five coaches bore members of the royal household. The sixth contained the king and queen who bowed gravely to the plaudits of the crowd.

Upon arriving at the end of their journey the party proceeded to the robing room where the magnificent royal robes were placed upon the shoulders of the queen. The royal party then marched into the House of Lords, everybody in the house arising.

After the King and Queen had mounted the throne the members of the House of Commons filed into the House of Lords. The King then read his speech.

Session Will Be Dull
The ministerial banquet in Arlington and Downing streets were followed by a large reception at Devonshire.

The speech from the throne today did not contain any startling surprises but the phrasing was fresh when the King read it with his penetrating voice.

Blast From Roseberry Expected
The session will be a dull one, unless all signs fail. The only speech which is anticipated with curiosity in the opening debate is Lord Roseberry's. It is reported that it will be something more than an attempt to scold everybody around both political circles, and that it will offer material evidence of his desire to win the support of the radicals and unite the distracted opposition.

The Buller episode will be dragged into politics at an early day, and among the awkward questions will be one relating to the assurances which the German Chancellor asserted he had received from the British government about the significance of Joseph Chamberlain's speech.

Roosevelt Pleases the British
President Roosevelt's appointments of the special embassy to the coronation and the announcement that Sir Wilfrid Laurier will represent Canada, are well received. Whitehall said is not a stranger at the British court and is known to be a persona grata with the King. Pierpont Morgan, Jr., is perhaps the most influential member of the American embassy. Sir Wilfrid Laurier is the most popular among the colonial premiers.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 16.—The house yesterday afternoon passed the pension bill which has been under discussion for three days and then adjourned until Saturday.

The resolution prepared by the special committee on the McKinley memorial exercises providing for an address by Secretary of State John Hay in the Hall of Representatives on Feb. 27 was adopted.

A joint resolution to appropriate $20,000 to pay the expenses incurred by the West Indian and South Carolina Interstate Exposition at Charleston, S. C., in connection with the government exhibit at Charleston, was passed.

A BARABOO MAN GETS GOLD MEDAL

Best Butter Exhibit at the Meeting of the State Dairymen's Association.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 16.—(Special)—The gold medal for the best tub of butter exhibited at the meeting of the state dairymen's association was today awarded to George H. Holmes of Baraboo, standing 98. MASTER PLUMBERS CONVENTION ENDS

The Annual Gathering at Milwaukee Closes with the Election of Officers.

Madison, Jan. 16.—The tenth annual convention of the Wisconsin Master Plumbers' Association came to a close last night with a banquet at the St. Charles hotel, at which 200 plates were laid. Charles Polachek of Milwaukee acted as toastmaster and the affair was the most largely attended ever held by the association. There was no formal toast list but impromptu speeches were made by W. H. Halsey, Hugo Lippert and F. R. Dengel of Milwaukee, C. W. Nelson of Neenah, and Fred Craft of Madison.

At the afternoon session the following officers were elected: President—F. R. Dengel, Milwaukee; Vice-President—C. W. Wilson, Neenah; Treasurer—George Craft, Madison; Secretary—Hugo Lippert, Milwaukee.

L. R. Stollberg of Milwaukee was chosen to represent the association at the meeting of the Interstate Plumbers' league, and H. Raymond of Racine, and W. H. Halsey of Milwaukee, were elected delegates to next convention of the national association. Milwaukee was selected as the place for holding the next annual convention.

DELAY IN CANAL BILL IS LIKELY

Isthmian Commission Will Certainly Recommend Adoption of the Panama Route.

Washington, Jan. 16.—The meeting this afternoon of the Isthmian canal commission is being awaited with keen interest by those senators who want to mix up the canal situation so that they may prevent legislation on that subject by the fifty-seventh congress. The purpose of the meeting is to consider the latest offer of the Panama company to sell its franchise and property to the United States for $40,000,000.

Senators who enjoy confidential relations with Admiral Walker, the chairman of the commission, have no doubt that the meeting will vote unanimously, or nearly so, for the passage of a resolution urging congress to accept the Panama proposition. Admiral Walker himself has become a convert to the Panama route; so has former Senator Pasco of Florida. The other members of the commission have not indicated where they stand, but are expected to follow the lead of the chairman and Senator Pasco.

If they should send in a new recommendation it is extremely doubtful if any canal bill will be passed at this or the next session of congress. The effect of such a recommendation would be to re-open the whole subject and to create a demand for further investigation of the several canal routes.

THE MORGAN SHIP COMBINE DEAL

Representatives of Three Trans-Atlantic Lines Coming to New York to Close Deal.

London, Jan. 16.—Some confirmation was obtained in Liverpool yesterday of the rumored amalgamation of the Leyland, American and White Star steamship lines. It was definitely stated that six cargo steamers belonging to the White Star company had been purchased to work transatlantic freightage trade in conjunction with other firms combined under the Morgan trust. Shipping circles were greatly surprised when it became known that representatives of the three lines are sailing together for New York, accompanied by a legal adviser. The White Star representatives are Ismay and Graves, together with W. J. Pirre, a large shareholder in the company and now a director of the Leyland line. The American company is represented by H. Willing, who is said to have been made general manager for the combination on the British side.

BRILLIANT METEOR LIGHTS TWO STATES

Residents of Nebraska and Kansas Are Much Frightened by Heavenly Visitor.

Beaver City, Jan. 16.—Parts of two states were thrown into commotion last night by the appearance of a brilliant meteor. The phenomenon causes an illumination of the sky at this place for many seconds.

The meteor crossed the heavens in a southwesterly direction. When it struck the earth there was a report like a peal of thunder. Many persons who were in their homes or business places and did not see its passage thought he concussion to be a slight earthquake shock.

Railroad men on trains from the West report that the meteor struck the earth near Atwood, Kan., and that the residents in that vicinity were panic-stricken by its appearance.

N. Y. CENTRAL TO SPEND BIG SUM

Interests of Humanity Demand Electricity Instead of Steam.

THE LATE HORROR HAS LARGE SUITES

Directors Vote to Use $35,000,000 in Making Suburban Transit Safe.

PLANS BEING DRAWN

New York, Jan. 16.—Electricity will be used in the near future to carry the throngs of suburban passengers through the New York Central tunnels to this city. This is the lesson learned by the railroad company from last week's frightful disaster, in which seventeen lives were sacrificed. The directors of the company met yesterday and again to-day, and talked the situation over. Expert engineers had been consulted, and their several plans were discussed. J. P. Morgan, the Vanderbilts and Senator Depew have been present at some of the meetings. As a result of these deliberations, the board of directors issued a statement to-day about what the company intends to do. The directors, after deploring the accident and expressing sympathy for the sufferers and their families, announce that the company has been preparing plans for changes in the methods of using the Park avenue tunnel.

Statement of the Directors
"After a thorough investigation," their statement continues, "it was determined that the most practicable plan for carrying the enormous passenger traffic concentrated in the Grand Central would be the construction of a loop station at the present terminal, so that the suburban trains could be operated by electricity through the existing side tunnels, to be equipped with the most modern appliances for underground traction. In this way the passenger facilities of the present station would be nearly doubled, and with the suburban business thus provided for, the through passenger and mail business can be moved through the center tunnel with promptness and regularity."

Experiments to Be Made
Before determining that electrical or some other power shall be substituted for steam on all trains entering the Grand Central Station, it must be demonstrated that the business can be safely and promptly handled in that way; therefore, it is contemplated to make experiments in the side tunnels and the underground station. In order to provide funds to improve the tunnel the board of directors decided to increase the capital stock of the company from the present amount of $115,000,000 to $150,000,000.

PRIMARY ELECTION LAW DENOUNCED

Well Known Minnesota Attorney Says La Follette's Measure is the Essence of Populism.

Rhineland, Wis., Jan. 16.—The New North, in its issue today prints the following article and opinion of the primary election law as expressed by W. W. Erwin, the well-known Minneapolis attorney.

"He said that it was the essence of populism; that it was against every established form of government; that it was foreign to the principle of representative government, and that its results could bring chaos and disorder to any people or to any party who undertook to nominate candidates for office by its formula."

"Mr. Erwin said that the people of Minneapolis who were at first most anxious to secure the passage of some such law were now thoroughly disgusted with it; that it had thrown the nomination of all officers in the city in the hands of advertisers and self-seeking politicians; that it gave no opportunity for the consideration of candidates or their worth; that it destroyed entirely the party discipline so necessary in every campaign after a nomination. He said that with a few thousand Democrats back of him, Dr. Ames, who was the best advertised man in the city, was able to capture the republican nomination for mayor, and that he would be equally able to capture the republican nomination for congress, although a life-long democrat."

"The eminent attorney was very outspoken in his denunciation of the practices of the law, as well as positive in his opinion that it was fully as pernicious to good government as the referendum of the populist party."

PLAN A WELCOME FOR THE PRINCE

United States and Germany Busily Engaged on Program.

HAS LARGE SUITES

Distinguished German Officers to Make Up Royal Visitor's Party.

KAISER MAY VISIT US

Washington, D. C., Jan. 16.—Germany and the United States are in the rush of preparation in connection with the impending visit of Prince Hohenzollern, the German ambassador, Henry of Prussia. Through Herr von Empor William has communicated to this government the names of the high dignitaries who will accompany the Prince on his mission, and the President and his cabinet are engaged in formulating plans for the reception and entertainment of the distinguished visitor.

According to the advices of Herr von Hohenzollern, the German ambassador, Prince Henry will cross the Atlantic in the steamer Kronprinz Wilhelm and will arrive at New York on February 22. He will sail for Germany on the American Hamburg liner Columbia on March 8.

Brings a Big Retinue
Prince Henry will have his own retinue of servants and each of the gentlemen of the party will bring his valet.

Under the programme adopted in Berlin the imperial yacht Hohenzollern will arrive off New York about the time the Kronprinz Wilhelm reaches that point. Prince Henry will then transfer his flag to the Hohenzollern and enter the harbor. It will be at the moment the Hohenzollern enters American waters that a special squadron of American men of war, under the command of Rear Admiral Robley D. Evans, will belch forth a salute in honor of the distinguished visitors. Rear Admiral Evans will then board the Hohenzollern and pay his respects to the prince. The squadron, escorting the Hohenzollern, will steam up the bay and the batteries along the way will fire the twenty-one gun salute.

Confers With Evans
Rear Admiral Evans was sent for this morning by Secretary Long and as a result of a conference he is engaged in the preparation of a programme which will be observed by the navy. His squadron will consist of the battle ship Illinois, protected cruisers Olympia, San Francisco and Cincinnati, the training ship Hartford and the gun boat Macdonalds. The army will be represented by Major General John R. Brooke, commanding the department of the East.

The President and Secretary Hay will receive the Prince in Washington. The official who will receive the prince in New York on behalf of the president has not yet been selected but Assistant Secretary of State Hill, who speaks German as well as he does his native tongue will probably be designated.

Says Kaiser Is to Visit America
London, Jan. 16.—The Candid Friend, a weekly newspaper, claims to be in a position to make the announcement that should Prince Henry's visit to the United States be as successful as expected, Emperor William himself will visit America in the autumn, with the Hohenzollern and a large escort of warships.

Referring to the foregoing dispatch from Berlin says:
"Emperor William has occasionally told Americans that he would like to visit the United States. But there is not the least probability of his gratifying his desire, as reasons of state imperatively forbid his leaving Germany for the period of time required to go to the United States, just as the duties of President Roosevelt would prevent him from visiting Germany."

THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Formed a State Council at Milwaukee Yesterday, with J. J. Cunningham as Warden.

Madison, Jan. 16.—A state organization of the Knights of Columbus was formed yesterday at a meeting held at the Hotel Pfister. Each of the subordinate councils of the state sent two delegates to the meeting. Supreme Knight Edward L. Hearn of Boston presided. A constitution similar to those of other state organizations was adopted and the following officers elected: State Deputy—H. J. Killilla, Milwaukee; Secretary—T. L. Gilbert, Madison; Treasurer—J. J. Sherman, Appleton; Advocate—J. T. Martin, Green Bay; Warden—J. J. Cunningham, Janesville; Chaplain—Rev. J. M. Naughtin, Madison.

INDIAN LANDS WILL BE OPENED

Negotiations Providing for the Sale of 100,000 Acres in Oklahoma Likely To Be Successful.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 16.—There will be another land opening in Oklahoma territory within the next year if a project now under consideration at the interior department can be matured and put into execution. The amount of land to be thrown open to the public, however, will be small as compared with the recent opening of the Kiowa, Comanche, and Wichita reservations, as the total will be less than 100,000 acres.

The limited area which it is proposed to open, together with the fertility of the soil and the advantageous location, insures one of the greatest scrambles for homesteads in history.

RICH IGNORE THE MEMORIAL FUND

Only Contributions for Martyr President's Monument Fund Are from Wage Earners and Children.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 15.—Myron T. Herrick, treasurer of the McKinley National Memorial association and President of the American Bankers' association, said today:

"There have been practically no contributions to the McKinley memorial fund from the men of wealth or from those at the head of our great commercial and manufacturing institutions."

"They have left the building of this memorial to the wage-earners in factories, shops, stores, and to the school children, who are not flinching in this expression of their love and confidence in William McKinley. Those men of means who should contribute seem to have delayed or forgotten."

TARRANT MADE A CIRCUIT JUDGE

Milwaukee Man Appointed To Fill the Vacancy Caused by the Death of Elliott.

Madison, Jan. 16.—Warren D. Tarrant of this city was yesterday afternoon appointed Judge of the Circuit court by Governor La Follette to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Elliott. The appointment of Mr. Tarrant was expected, all the straws having been blowing in his direction for some time. Mr. Tarrant said that he would qualify and take his seat at once, as the pressure of business made it advisable to open court as soon as possible. He hopes to begin in his duties next Saturday.

Judge Tarrant is the youngest judge in the state being thirty-four years of age. He is a native of Wisconsin having been born in Durand. He graduated from the law department of the Wisconsin University in 1890, and two years later formed a partnership with Theodore Kronshage in this city. He is the senior member of the firm of Tarrant, Kronshage & McGovern. He is a good lawyer and is well equipped for the duties of the bench.

CASE OF OFFICE SEEKING MAN

Whitehead's Boom for Governor an Instance of the Kind.

HAS GOOD BACKING

Story That La Follette May Not Be a Candidate for Second Term.

CAMPAIGN GROWS HOT

Madison, Jan. 16.—Wisconsin is just now witnessing a case of the office seeking man and it is doubtful if in all the history of the state there can be found another like it. That Senator Whitehead is the unanimous choice of the stalwarts there is no doubt, for the petitions put in circulation yesterday by leading republicans calling upon the Janesville man to allow the use of his name before the convention are being signed as fast as opportunity presents itself.

The senator has not said whether he will make the race or not, but there seems to be no question on this point. He came to Milwaukee last night to consult with some of his friends, and while he refused to commit himself one way or the other it was evident from his talk that he would respond to the call.

He has never been a candidate in the sense of asking any man for his support, and everything of this kind that has come to him has been voluntary, including the withdrawal of Messrs. Bennett and Alexander, both of whom are in line for Whitehead with enthusiasm.

Disturbed the Half Breeds
In Milwaukee as well as in Madison, and, in fact, throughout the state, La Follette camps were disturbed by the following paragraph, which appeared in a personal organ of Governor La Follette's:

"Should Robert M. La Follette decide to retire from the field as a candidate for governor, it would be a very acme of unwisdom for the republican party to nominate Senator John M. Whitehead."

The indirect announcement that the sick man of Madison is considering whether or not he shall retire from the political field in the next campaign was a surprise, coming from an official source, and was generally commented on by politicians.

"Men who stand close to Mr. La Follette here in Milwaukee say in explanation of the report that there are two contingencies only which will take him out of the race for renomination. One of these is death; the other, ill health. It is conceded on all sides that Governor La Follette is not in the enjoyment of good health; in fact, it has been stated that he has been seriously contemplating a trip to California to regain sufficient strength to enable him to perform the functions of his office and withstand the demands of the approaching campaign."

He Has Nothing to Say
Madison, Wis., Jan. 16.—"I have nothing to say," replied Governor La Follette when asked if there was any truth in the intimation that he might not be a candidate for the renomination. Since taking the office the governor has persistently refused to be interviewed on any matter whatsoever, and his refusal to talk about the intimation is in line with his previous practice.

Colonel Murphy also refused to discuss the report for publication. General Bryant, however, was willing to talk.

"I am just as sure that La Follette will be a candidate for renomination, if he lives, as I am that he ran the last time. If he is the kind of a man I take him for, he will certainly be a candidate for renomination."

EXPERIENCE WITH A CONFIDENCE MAN

Janesville Business Man on a Train
Induced to Join in a Game of Smear.

"I have heard and read of confidence men who make a specialty of paying their profession on steamships and railroads trains, but have never happened to get mixed up with any of their games until a few nights ago when I was returning home from Chicago on the Duluth Flyer," said a local business man in conversation with a Gazette reporter the other day. "I was sitting in the smoker," he continued, "when a nicely dressed gentleman addressed me and asked me if I would take a hand in a game of cards. I told him that I played occasionally, and asked what the stakes were. He said ten cents to twenty-five cents a corner. I said that I never played for money. Well, he said, 'we'll just play for fun then; we are short of a man and you would accommodate us by filling out the four.' I consented and we went into the other section of the car and there found the nicely dressed stranger's friends. One was a stock man whom they addressed as 'Minnesota.' We sat down and while I thought nothing strange at the time of the fact that the two confederates were partners, as the game progressed I noted the reason.

"We were playing smear and the man who sat opposite to me remarked on picking up his hand after he had played some time, that if we were playing poker 'the cards he held would be worth some money. His partner then spoke up and said that he also had a good hand and he would be willing to bet two dollars on its winning qualities. With that the first gentleman pulled out a roll of bills and placed a five on the board saying he would raise that bet to five seeing he had no change. This was agreeable to the other and when the hands were laid down the first man held three kings and the other fellow two good pairs.

"I had begun to 'tumble to their game a few minutes before this play when I felt the 'con' man across from me pull at a card that was under my hand on the board, which happened to be a king; when I looked at him he was very busily engaged counting the game in my tricks. Soon I commenced to have a great lot of poker hands, one of them was four kings. I said nothing and was not surprised when 'Minnesota,' the stock man, remarked that he had a great poker hand.

"I thought a look of satisfaction crossed the face of the man opposite me. Any way, he said, 'Is that right? Well, I have a pretty good hand myself, and I think it is worth more than yours. How much will you put up on it?' But the stock man said he never bet on cards. 'Go ahead,' the second con man put in. 'You can win out, he is only bluffing,' but the stock man remained firm. 'Let me take your hand and bet it for you,' and the second con man, and at the same time he winked at his partner, which the stock man happened to see, and with that he threw down his hand which consisted of three jacks and a pair of aces. I was ready to quit and so, left them. The two sharpers went into the other car and the stock man and I compared notes. He said he never carried money with him; he changed his cash into a draft in the city, but had he happened to have some money with him he should have been tempted to bet the hand he held, and of course, would have lost. He did not get onto their game until they exchanged winks.

"The two men got off the train at Janesville, and I have no doubt they are the same from the description I remember, who fleeced travelers some time ago up near Duluth on this same train. I met one of the fellows on the depot platform when I alighted from the train and just to let him know I was 'on,' told him to tell his friend the next time he played cards with strangers to be more careful about fixing the face cards in the deck. He didn't answer me."

A CHOICE ENTERTAINMENT

Fine Program Rerendered at State School For Blind Last Evening. A little audience assembled in the gymnasium at the State School for the Blind, last evening to enjoy "Macbeth," put on the stage in full costume, under the training and direction of Miss F. A. Benson, one of the literary teachers.

The production was a revelation to those present, who are not familiar with the talent possessed by the school. The characters were all well taken and some of them were exceptionally fine.

Samuel Edgvet in the role of Macbeth, sustained the part throughout in voice and manner in a way that indicated not only careful training, but appreciation. While Millie Schmittke as Lady Macbeth was true to life in her presentation.

Chester Parish as Duncan, had a commanding presence, while Alfred Feistel as Earl of Ross and Arthur Corey as Banquo sustained their parts well. Oscar Simmons in the triple role of Lenox, Seward and Surgeon, was equal to the occasion, while Dan Roberts with his pleasant and well-trained voice was equal to Malcolm in his best estate.

William Cochran took the part of Donalbain like a veteran in the service, and William Quade would put to blush the modern Sexton.

As murderers of villainous type James Babcock and George Lunenburg excelled.

Mildred McFate, the Doctor of Physic, will hang out her shingle on most any corner and succeed and with the gentle waiting woman Winifred Gilbert may defy competition.

Carrie Palmer, Josie Foster and Elizabeth Emmerson as witches, would rout the witch of Endor and have a clear field against all comers. In the sword act William Dobbin with well developed muscle found no trouble in routing Mordecai, and he would be fighting yet if there were any more foes to conquer.

When it is considered that the most of these people are totally blind their work is a marvel even to people who are familiar with it. Walter Getzinger, the musical marvel of the school, presided at the pipe organ and contributed largely to the enjoyment of the evening.

At the close of the entertainment Superintendent Hutton and his wife extended hospitality to the class, and teachers, and an hour was very pleasantly spent around a well-laden board. The evening was enjoyable and will be remembered with a feeling of pleasure by all, who were present.

FALSE PRETENSES AND GAMBLING

Editor Gazette.—Not that I would detract from or criticize honest effort for good of individuals or communities. But that I would awake conscience to a sense of justice, and call attention to defects in life's practices, especially to those who "think of life as a goblet to be drained, rather than a measure to be filled," do I ask you to extend former courtesies by giving place for the following in your paper, which as ever promoted good and never sanctioned known wrong. The meanest gambling of all where a fair deal is not given.

The fakir of Mohammedan kind, representing no insurance in indemnity for disability with the realm of falsity in which to get money; 23 for self 13 for insurance company with ingenuous contract to evade payment is like the man who advertised a cheap rate to hell in order to get something for self, knowing that many are going that way by expensive routes.

One who parts with his money for accident or sickness insurance to an agent representing such, with no capital except continual payments with disposition or ability only to evade honest payment, is "penny wise and pound foolish."

Whoever as agent or principal is more zealous to obtain money from the insured than willing to pay indemnity when due is selfish and dishonest. I make no doubt but the gamblers who fairly cast lots for Christ's raiment and kept good natured when he did not need it was honest compared with the man who robbed his friend by false pretenses of what he needed and now shows malicious enmity toward justice, because he is asked for fair investigation. I firmly believe that the thief is less censurable than the community that keeps him in offices of trust and ostracizes his victim, rather than investigate facts.

The liar might have told the truth but he did not else all men would not have been liars. The ministers might have told the truth about God's justice and the greater blessings to and from those who show love of God, by practicing humanity toward everything if they had it might have saved Christians from believing that they must seek a place where a particular creed is taught in which to worship God on Sunday for Christ's sake, when busy the other Sundays worshipping mammon for the sake of self.

God's humanity requires of men the constant practice of justice, tempered with charity. The selfishly dishonest not to accept, retain from or believing alone has saved them is making idle mocking of religion. The lawyer or legislator might plead for justice or reform instead of for fees, or self aggrandizement. If religiously honest not to accept, retain or forwonder service to client opposing justice and not try to reform out of office only those not his superiors in advocating reform. Sins of omission under some circumstances reflect as much guilt as sins of commission, under other circumstances.

One who knows of a crime and refuses or neglects to tell of it, shares the crime. The community or any part of it that knows two neighbors or brothers once associated confidentially in business and that they are now estranged one of them earnestly soliciting an investigation and reconciliation, the other stubbornly refusing, for no other reason than that he cannot dispute his records and dare not defend his actions, and then ostracizes the former and aggrandizes the latter share, the curse entailed upon society.

Only to assume to be Elijah, the second, or something that you are not to create or perpetuate a scheme and urge others to follow in belief conceived in dishonesty born of selfishness, nourished in falsity, and nearly obsolete of its own inconsistency is like the stink plant pretending that it emits sweeter fragrance than the rose. Goodfellowship and honest dealing constitute good citizenship which builds up states, unions of state from their great United States. Whoever does not sacredly guard justice is a menace to society, and endangers the foundation of government. THOS. A. AMES.

REWARD OF MERIT.

A New Catarrh Cure Secures National Popularity in Less Than One Year.

Throughout a great nation of eighty millions it is a desperate struggle to secure even a recognition for a new article to say nothing of achieving popular favor, and yet within one year Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, the new catarrh cure, has met with such success that today it can be found in every drug store throughout the United States and Canada.

To be sure a large amount of advertising was necessary in the first instance to bring the remedy to the attention of the public, but every one familiar with the subject knows that advertising alone never made any article permanently successful. It must have in addition absolute, undeniable merit, and this the new catarrh cure certainly possesses in a marked degree.

Physicians who formerly depended upon inhalers, sprays, and local washes or ointments, now use Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, because, as one of the most prominent stated, these tablets contain in pleasant, convenient form all the really efficient catarrh remedies, such as red gum, blood root and similar antiseptics.

They contain no cocaine nor opiate, and are given to little children with entire safety and benefit. Dr. J. J. Reltiger, of Covington, Ky., says: "I suffered from catarrh in my head and throat every fall, with stoppage of the nose and irritation in the throat affecting my voice and often extending to the stomach, causing catarrh of the stomach. I bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at my druggists, carried them in my pocket and used them faithfully, and the way in which they cleared my head and throat was certainly remarkable. I had no catarrh last winter and spring and consider myself entirely free from any catarrhal trouble."

Mrs. Jerome Ellison, of Wheeling, W. Va., writes: "I suffered from catarrh nearly my whole life and last winter my two children also suffered from catarrhal colds and sore throat so much that they were out of school a large portion of the winter. My brother, who was cured of catarrhal deafness by using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, urged me to try them so much that I did so and am truly thankful for what they have done for myself and children. I always keep a box of the tablets in the house and at the first appearance of a cold or sore throat we nip it in the bud and catarrh is no longer a household affliction with us."

Full sized packages of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are sold for fifty cents at all druggists. Send for book on cause and cure of catarrh mailed free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

Catarrh

The cause exists in the blood, in what causes inflammation of the mucous membrane.

It is therefore impossible to cure the disease by local applications.

It is positively dangerous to neglect it, because it always affects the stomach and deranges the general health, and is likely to develop into consumption.

Many have been radically and permanently cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cleanses the blood and has a peculiar alterative and tonic effect. R. Long, California Junction, Iowa, writes: "I had catarrh three years, lost my appetite and could not sleep. My head pained me and I felt bad all over. I took Hood's Sarsaparilla and now have a good appetite, sleep well, and have no symptoms of catarrh."

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—The honest, intelligent physician is above the 'School.' Whatever is best in each case should be used, no matter to what school a physician belongs. I, as a matter of conscience, can only prescribe the best, and as I know and have proven that there is nothing in Materia Medica which equals Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female disorders, I unhesitatingly prescribe it, and have never yet been sorry. I know of nothing better for ovarian troubles and for falling of the womb or ulcerations; it absolutely restores the affected parts to their normal condition quicker and better than anything else. I have known it to cure barrenness in women, who to-day are happy mothers of children, and while the medical profession looks down upon 'patents,' I have learned, instead, to look-up to the healing potion, by whatever name it be known. If my fellow physicians dared tell the truth, hundreds of them would voice my sentiments."—Dr. WANATA, Lansing, Mich.

HALE OPPOSES THE MILITIA

Senator from Maine Arouses
His Colleagues by a Speech.

IN A SPIRITED DISCUSSION

He Declares Men Are Interested in Naval and Military Organizations Only
During a War and Advocates a Compulsory Service Law.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 16.—A spirited discussion was precipitated in the senate by remarks submitted by Mr. Hale of Maine in respect to bills relating to the formation of a naval reserve which he introduced. Mr. Hale took strong ground against the organization of a naval reserve, his comments being construed by several senators into a reflection upon volunteer soldiers and land militia. Half a dozen senators were on their feet in an instant to defend the volunteers and the National Guard of the various states, and the debate took so wide a range that senators went back in their reference to the days of the revolutionary war to seek illustrations for their arguments.

Volunteers Plenty During War. Experience had shown, said Mr. Hale, in the course of his speech, that at the beginning of a war plenty of young men were ready to enlist in the navy and enter the ranks of naval militia, but at the conclusion of the war the interest in the organizations ceased, and it was found difficult to maintain them. He was of opinion that the United States was not likely, as a nation, to take much interest in the militia forces either of the land or of the sea. In time of stress he was certain that the country would be obliged to depend upon volunteers, called out in an emergency, or upon some form of compulsory service. England, he said, had "learned this lesson from her smallest and wickedest war. If we are to become a great war power we will have to learn the lesson other nations have learned. Every one of the nations of the world that stands snarling at another depends to some extent upon some sort of compulsory military service. If we have determined that we are to become a great war power, with a great army and a great navy, no system of volunteering will answer the purpose." Mr. Spooner pointed out that the display made by the National Guard of various states on Pennsylvania avenue in Washington on the occasion of an inaugural parade was a sufficient evidence of the practicability of the militia. "Yes," responded Mr. Hale, "but the loss of life on Pennsylvania avenue never is serious."

Many Senators Defend Militia. Several senators, among them Mr. Mason of Illinois, Mr. Teller of Colorado, Mr. Hoar of Massachusetts, and Mr. Bacon of Georgia, were drawn into the debate in defense of the militia forces of the various states. Mr. Hale finally disclaiming any intention to reflect on the national guard. Mr. Hoar said that while the naval militia was yet in an experimental stage, it was manifest that in every warlike emergency the country must be protected by a trained militia or by a regular army, or by both. It had been proved that the United States ought to have a good, regular army of moderate strength, supplemented by a strong militia force. Mr. Hoar then introduced a resolution asking information from the department of state whether it had official information as to the correctness of the charge that presents from charitable organizations in this country to Boer prisoners of war at Bermuda had been taxed in violation of The Hague convention. The resolution was adopted.

House Passes Pension Bill. Washington, Jan. 16.—The house passed the pension appropriation bill, which has been under discussion for three days, and then adjourned until Saturday. The resolution prepared by the special committee on the McKinley memorial exercises providing for an address by Secretary of State John Hay in the hall of representatives on February 27 was adopted. A joint resolution to appropriate $90,000 to pay the expenses incurred by the West Indian and South Carolina Interstate Exposition at Charleston, S. C., in connection with the government exhibit at Charleston, was passed.

Girl Dying at Wedding's Eve. Chicago, Jan. 16.—With her wedding day only five days away, May Mau, 18 years old and attractive, lies at the German hospital with her back broken. The lower half of her body is paralyzed, as the result of an accident which befell her Sunday night. A defective railing on a rear porch broke as she was leaning against it and she fell upon a pile of old timbers.

Are Satisfied Conductor is Lost. Victoria, B. C., Jan. 16.—Hope for the safety of the British war ship Conductor is all but abandoned. Navel men here are convinced she went to the bottom during the recent typhoon while on her way from here to Honolulu.

Reid's Appointment is Popular. London, Jan. 16.—The appointment of Whitelaw Reid as special ambassador to represent the United States at the coronation of King Edward has been received with much satisfaction in official and unofficial circles here.

NEWS AND GOSSIP FROM LINE CITY

Reception to Mrs. Hunt, Who Will Be One Hundred Years Old
Next Month.

Beloit, Wis., Jan. 16.—Mrs. C. B. Salmon entertained fifteen of the oldest ladies in Beloit Tuesday at a 5 o'clock tea to meet Mrs. Hunt, mother of Mrs. Royce, who will be 100 years old next week. Like reflects like. Each lady wore upon her dress the "place card" which was a beautiful red rose. Mrs. Hunt also had a little fern plant as a souvenir. These ladies averaged 80 years and the combined age of the fifteen ladies would make twelve centuries. Mrs. Hunt, while the oldest in years, was one of the youngest in voice and appearance. It was difficult to believe that in another week she will have passed her 100th year. Mrs. Paley ranked next in honor at 88.

It is almost impossible to realize the great changes that have taken place during the life of Mrs. Hunt. Washington died just before her birth. During her girlhood and later, France owned more than half of the present present United States. The country around Chicago was a wilderness when she was married. There were no railroads, much less telegraphs, and all the wonderful things at that time are now common places.

The Clan-na-vian club met Tuesday night and elected officers. During the meeting Father Ward and Dr. Connell gave short speeches on subjects touching the welfare of the club. Following are the newly elected officers: President, Charles Kline; first vice president, Miss Gavilan; second vice president, Thomas Monahan; secretary, Anna Hayes; treasurer, Wm. Enking.

Louis Bullock, of Sheboygan, and Mrs. Lydia Hurd of Chicago, formerly of this city, were wedded in Waukegan, Ill., Monday, Jan. 13. Mrs. Hurd was the widow of Fred Hurd, a daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bullock will reside in Sheboygan, where he is superintendent of the Riese Coal company.

Mr. A. W. Bullock, who is assisting in taking the census for the new directory found the population found the population of the Fifth ward to be 2,237, which is an increase of about 350 since the official census was taken. If the other divisions of the city have held up as well Beloit's population now will approximate 12,000.

Appointed Circuit Judge. Milwaukee, Wis., Jan. 16.—Warren D. Tarrant of this city has been appointed Judge of the Circuit court by Governor La Follette to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Elliott. The appointment of Mr. Tarrant was expected, all the straws having been blowing in his direction for some time. Mr. Tarrant said that he would qualify and take his seat at once, as the pressure of business made it advisable to open court as soon as possible. He now hopes to begin his duties next Saturday.

THE GERMAN AND TEMPERANCE

Milwaukee, Jan. 13.—State Senator Whitehead is "up against" the same proposition in his prospective candidacy for governor this year that troubled his canvass two years ago. Die Germania, one of the leading German republican papers in the state, in discussing the senator and his possible candidacy, says he is known as a man who is not very liberal in his views and charges him with being a prohibitionist. Die Germania admits that with this exception the senator is "an honorable and able man," but hints that he would not, on account of his views, be accepted by the German voters. As the German element in the republican party constitutes a large minority of that party's strength the suggestions of the Germania are ominous.—Chicago Record-Herald.

The Milwaukee correspondent of the Chicago Record quotes from a recent editorial in "Die Germania" the leading German paper in Milwaukee. The Record-Herald has always admired Wisconsin's erratic governor, and it is perfectly natural that the paper should be in sympathy with the faction of the party in the state that are ready to defend him in all of his methods.

The fact that Senator Whitehead is being freely discussed as a possible candidate for governor, has suggested several avenues of attack, and among them, the high moral character of the man. The men who oppose the supporters of Senator Whitehead would like to make it appear that the senator is weak and unpopular with the Germans, because he is temperate in his habits.

They seem to forget that among the most sturdy, law loving and law abiding citizens of the state, is the German contingency. That they believe in temperance and good morals and practice their belief as strenuously, as any class of citizens in the commonwealth. The German drunkard is so rare that he is a curiosity. He may imbibe his national beverage the same as the American drinks milk and it affects him about the same way so far as intoxication is concerned.

It is a libel on the race and the cheapest kind of clap-trap argument, to claim that Senator Whitehead's morality, and the fact that he is a total abstainer, renders him unpopular. The most staunch supporters that he has are the Germans of his home district.

If the supporters of the governor imagine that morality and good citizenship is an issue of the campaign, they should be encouraged. Plenty of that kind of rope will hang up an ambition beyond recovery.

THE QUESTION OF FRANCHISE.

The Twilight club, at its last meeting, discussed, among other things, the question of city franchise to urban and interurban roads. One feature of the question was neglected, and The Gazette has been asked a question that the paper is unable to answer, concerning the franchise granted the company now chasing up and down the streets of the city.

The question is: "Does the franchise provide for accommodating the public, or simply for making time over the road?" The inquisitive mind that suggests it, says that he arrived from Madison at 10:30 the other day and about twenty passengers left the train and looked for a street car to ride down town. They had the pleasure of seeing one as it disappeared around the corner on Milwaukee street. He lost his ambition to ride when a little later he saw a man make a dive for the rear platform of a car and after being dragged for a block, dismount by doubling himself up like a hoop, and rolling off towards the sidewalk.

He asked a motorman why he was in so much of a hurry, and he said he was obliged to make time, whether he took any money or not, and then he went on to tell him of a flying trip he made to the cemetery the other day, in which the run from the corner of Main street and return was made in seventeen minutes, without a passenger. On the way back half a dozen ladies wanted to ride, but he shouted as he whizzed by, "Haven't time to stop," but he made the trip in seventeen minutes and probably saved the charter.

The Gazette is not posted on franchises, but would respectfully suggest to the council that a clause be inserted in the various interurban concessions, providing that their cars stop in Janesville as they go through.

TO AID THE FILIPINOS.

Senator Hoar has been a troublesome member ever since the war with Spain was forced upon the country. The old gentleman is honest in his convictions, but biased in judgment. He was a constant source of annoyance to President McKinley and to his associates in the senate, and he promises to be a thorn in the flesh of the present administration. He assumes to possess more knowledge and a better understanding of conditions in the Philippines than the authorities in command, and has recently introduced a bill providing for a commission of seven senators to investigate what he terms the war in Manila and see if something can not be done to relieve the natives.

The senator appears to overlook the fact that the war with Spain was a righteous war and that there has come to us unsought a race of barbarous and semi-civilized people, many of them in rebellion through ignorance, but all of them American citizens on foreign soil. The work of civilization is necessarily slow, but that it is being intelligently promoted is not an open question. Senator Hoar may be endowed with wisdom and foresight of a superior quality, but he will accomplish more as an advisor than an obstructionist. The republican party has a clearly defined policy towards our new possessions. It is natural that democracy should oppose it, but it is unnatural and unreasonable, for men like the veteran senator in the ranks of his own party, to pose as the embodiment of wisdom, and directly and indirectly oppose every measure advanced.

There comes a period in the age of humanity when a time limit is placed on their usefulness, and it looks as though the senator had reached that period.

NOT TALKING.

Senator Whitehead is not talking, but there are plenty of people talking for him. He has said nothing about being a candidate for governor, but it is currently reported from all parts of the state that his name is freely mentioned in this connection. Back of all this talk appears to be a growing sentiment that the senator is the right man to champion the cause of the conservative element of the party. If the consensus of opinion unites on him, and he is invited to be the leader of the party in the next campaign, it will be time enough for Senator Whitehead to accept or decline, as his judgment may determine. He is not seeking the honor, but unless all signs fail, the honor is seeking the man.

It is a foregone conclusion that he is opposed for a renomination. He is opposed for a renomination. He has courted this kind of opposition persistently and will not be disappointed at results. The opposition that his courtship developed is neither impulsive nor passionate. The breach in the party was encouraged to heal, and was in a fair way to do so, but a lack of wisdom and tact, or a desire to continue the warfare, on the part of the governor, rent the parts asunder, and today the chasm is wider than ever before.

The conservative wing of the party is interested in the life and perpetuity of the party. The ambitions of any man or set of men, is neither recognized nor considered. A leader is wanted who is large enough to command the confidence and support of the people of the state, who believe in conservative legislation. If Senator Whitehead is selected, and will accept, he will be found equal to the emergency.

CUBAN RECIPROCITY.

The Gazette published a communication yesterday written in the interests of Wisconsin tobacco as related to Cuban competition.

The growers and dealers are invited to meet at Madison, at an early date, to protest against national legislation that may favor reciprocal trade relations with Cuba. The argument used is strong and the figures presented, convincing. The effort to protect local interests against the encroachment of foreign goods is perfectly natural, and whenever any attempt is made to regulate the tariff, some locality, and some commodity, have vigorously protested.

In this instance it strikes the tobacco district of Wisconsin as well as the tobacco industry of the country.

As a matter of self-interest The Gazette would naturally be in favor of the protest. Cuban competition means, of course, a money loss to the state, but the parties most directly interested will not be surprised if congress takes a broader view. Cuba is struggling to establish a government in which this country can not but feel a lively interest. The new government about to be launched is experimental. It is among the most remote possibilities that the island may be knocking for admission and may be admitted the same as Porto Rico and Hawaii. The government can not afford to be unfriendly either in attitude of treatment, and congress is bound to consider the question from all sides before deciding.

AN ACCEPTABLE NOMINEE.

The Oshkosh Northwestern reviews the state situation at some length and recognizes Senator Whitehead as a leading factor. The Oshkosh paper has attempted to be a consistent supporter of the governor, but has been fair in treating the opposition. It says in part:

"The prospects therefore, seem to be that the republican voters of the state will be called upon to make their choice between Senator Whitehead of Janesville and Governor La Follette. The only thing which would seem to indicate a possible change in this program would be the refusal of the former to permit his name to be used and as he has remained silent thus far and to all appearances has the backing of the Milwaukee Sentinel and the new republican league the indications point strongly to the fact that he is willing to make the run. There can be no question that Senator Whitehead is an able and conscientious man and would make, an acceptable nominee for the governorship provided Governor La Follette was out of the way, but as already stated, he will have to meet the vigorous opposition of the friends of the latter who believe that he has been unjustly hampered and opposed in many of his most important projects and that he is honest and upright and fairly entitled to the customary courtesy of a renomination for a second term."

THROWING A SPRAT.

There is no occasion for uneasiness concerning ex-Governor Hoar's attitude on the "oleo" bill. The tax of one-fourth of a cent per pound on the uncolored article is a mere bagatelle compared to the ten cent tax on the uncolored. The Wisconsin man is simply "throwing a sprat to catch a mackerel." Uncolored "oleo" is about as unsaleable as white butter. It can be reduced to oil and injected into creamery butter, as is frequently done now, and the tax would only add to the expense of the dealer. The product of the dairy and the product, "oleo," are both products of the farm. Process butter, which will take the place of "oleo," if driven out of the market by tax, is the product of an inventive brain and a variety of ingredients that would hardly find a market without an attractive label.

The name of John Strange, the railroad contractor, has been mentioned as a possible successor to Congressman Jenkins, but the Oshkosh Northwestern is authority for the statement that Mr. Jenkins will succeed himself, without opposition.

The organization reported to have been formed in the interests of Senator Whitehead for governor, is strong, and will commend itself to people throughout the state.

Senator Billy Mason favors reciprocity with Cuba and for once is in harmony with the president.

The Oshkosh Northwestern says it pays better to sing in grand opera than in Grand Rapids.

Governor La Follette may succeed himself, and then again he may not. Much depends.

Tax reform is a live issue. The primary law is too dead for resurrection.

Ambition is always commendable, but it don't always win.

Some men attain popularity at a single bound.

The life of a governor is not all sunshine.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE

A bill is now pending before congress to amend the interstate commerce law, and throw around it some safeguards that the test of experience suggests as necessary. The law has been in force for a number of years, and aims to regulate on a fair and equitable basis, the relations between railroads as common carriers, and shippers. A synopsis of the amended bill is published on another page. The provisions appear to be fair, and there is every reason to believe that the amendment will become a law. The railroads need the protection provided, and the shippers will be on an equitable basis.

PRESS COMMENT.

The Beloit Free Press, in speaking of Senator Whitehead's strong endorsement from the northern part of the state, says: Similar strong endorsements come from other sections of the state. It is well known that Senator Whitehead has had neither desires nor intentions to become a gubernatorial candidate. His senatorial term does not expire until 1904, and his expressed desire is to serve out the term, but there are times when a man owes a greater duty to his party than to himself, and it may be such a time has come in the political life of Senator Whitehead. It would seem so, certainly, should this demand of his political brethren continue in increasing degree.

Watertown Times: It seems pretty certain that the stalwarts may unite on Senator John M. Whitehead of Janesville as a candidate for the governorship. He is at present state senator from the twenty-second district which comprises a number of towns in this county. Senator Whitehead, however, has not yet intimated that he was seeking the honor or that he would be a candidate.

Oshkosh Northwestern: The state of Wisconsin has one cow for every two citizens and the total valuation of the annual dairy product is $33,000,000. With plenty of wholesome milk, butter and cheese, supplemented by the product of the over industrious Badger hen, it fully explains why the class of citizens raised in this state is one of the blue ribbon brand.

Racine Journal: The remarkable story of a bottle having traveled all the way from Mackenzie river to Santa Monica, Cal., via river and ocean currents, the time taken from Jan. 27, 1900, to Jan. 5, 1902, is not much of a record, many bottles have traveled much further in much less time.

La Crosse Republican-Leader: The very fact that Senator Whitehead is an acceptable gubernatorial timber to some architects of the rule or ruin school, is the very best endorsement that gentleman could possibly secure.

The orthographic enthusiasts of the state had better let the spelling of the English language simplify itself gradually, as it is bound to do if given a chance. The average writer has trouble enough as it is, without having an entire new system thrust upon him.—Whitewater Register.

When the average tax payer gets his receipt from the treasurer this year, he is thoroughly convinced that La Follette kept him from bankruptcy by saving him from paying a tax on his dog.—Winneconne Local.

The incongruity of "Deacon" Whitehead and his support causes us to welcome him as a charming candidate with whom to have fun later on.—La Crosse Chronicle.

Marquette Eagle: Fred Dennett says he favors Whitehead for governor. Now if La Follette would say as much, how peaceful would this party be.

The Milwaukee papers have ceased calling each other names for the present. And it is not the millennium, either.—Waupaca Post.

Speech was silver when Senator Whitehead talked on taxation; now Governor La Follette is trying whether silence will be golden.—Milwaukee Journal.

"So you are not in favor of suppressing the caricaturists?" "Certainly not," answered the great statesman. "What's the use of suppressing the caricaturists so long as you can't do anything with the amateur photographers?"—Washington Star.

BUSINESS SLOW IN TOBACCO CIRCLES

PLEASANT WEATHER AND GOOD ROADS ATTRACT BUYERS.

The Price So Far Paid Runs from Eight to Eleven—The Leaf is Thinner Than Was Looked For, and Will Run Largely to Short Sizes—Good Percentage of Filler Grades

Business in local tobacco circles is not rushing. Some deliveries have been made to the warehouses in the city during the last week and some crops have been delivered at the railroad freight houses and shipped to warehouses at other points.

The pleasant weather and good roads have attracted the buyers who have been doing some riding looking over the crops and occasionally buying one that looked first class to them. The crop as a whole is in fair packing condition.

The yield is, of course, much lighter than usual, and this much was expected. The leaf is thinner than was looked for though it will run largely to short sizes and the percentage of filler grades will be greater than in some other seasons.

The growers are not generally following the suggestion made at the dealers' convention that the fillers be separated and tied up in bundles at the time of stripping.

From 8 to 11 Cents
The prices paid for the crop so far run from eight to eleven cents, some of the cheaper grades however have been purchased for about five cents.

There is a growing disposition to pay the price, buyers having evidently concluded that even at the high figures asked the demand will be sufficient to consume the supply, known to be considerably less than that of last year. The almost entire absence of old stocks is another feature which makes both growers and buyers confident that the present crop will be absolutely necessary to manufacturers.

Most of the farmers that got all their crops down during the damp spell and have sold, have delivered them. Numerous others have part of their crop ready for delivery but want to get it all ready before bringing it in.

Several warehouses in the city are receiving and have a force at work in the sorting rooms. Not near the number of hands are employed this year that there were last.

The Heaviest Buyers.
The heaviest buyers about this section this year are, S. B. Heddies, John Soultan & Co., L. B. Carle, George Rumrill, Fisher and Fisher, H. G. Merrill and George Decker.

A few warehouses in Vernon county have commenced handling the new crop. The American Cigar Co. start up the season's handling both at Springfield and at Madison Monday and furnish employment to about 600 hands, and will turn out in the neighborhood of 2,000 cases of packed tobacco weekly.

An Important Factor
An important factor in the inactivity is the wide differences of opinion regarding the value of the new crop. The enormous call for 1900 at record prices and the known shortage of 1901 leaf have imbued growers with the idea that they can demand almost any price and get it. Buyers do not agree with this proposition at all and declare they will not pay a price manifestly much higher than the crop is worth. They also profess to believe that the enormous demand for 1900 tobacco was caused by the intention of manufacturers to secure a two years' supply and thus render themselves independent of this year's crop, but they do not explain why manufacturers should pay extremely high prices for the old crop if they believed there is enough of the new leaf to supply the annual demand. It is likely that both sides will have to make concessions, but from present known conditions it looks as if the buyers will have to go more than half the way.

Report of License Committee of the County Board Shows There Are 84 Saloons in This County—Soldiers' Relief Commission Report—Session of the County Board Today.

The county board convened this morning at 10 o'clock after adjournment, a full board being present.

The petition of O. D. Rowe to transfer abstract business of the register's office to C. L. Valentine and was made a special order of business for this morning at 10 o'clock. The petition on motion was stricken from the record and returned to Mr. Rowe.

A communication from Fred G. Renner, county clerk of Shawano county, in regard to a resolution about changing the mode of assessment was laid on the table.

The report of the special committee on the soldiers' relief commission shows cash on hand Jan. 1, 1901 to have been $296.74; expended during the year $117.75 leaving a balance January 2, 1902 of $178.99. The report showed a balance of $206.04 to the credit of Supt. Ross and of $260.37 to credit of Supt. Throne.

The bill of L. R. Farr of Beloit for medical services amounting to $12.60 was ordered paid.

The special committee appointed to look up the matter of tax certificates held by the county subject to deed, recommended that the county treasurer procure deeds for the same.

Salaries of County Officers
The report of the special committee appointed to fix the salaries of the county officers that now are under a fee system was adopted.

The report shows that the income from the register's office during the two years' independent of the abstract work was over $4,300. In the clerk of the courts' office it was nearly $4,000 exclusive of the per diem of the clerk.

The committee fixed the salaries of the different officers to take effect the first Monday in January, 1903, as follows: Clerk of the court, $3,000; sheriff, $1,000; district attorney, $1,200; register of deeds, $2,000; register of probate, $800; deputy clerk of court, $600; county clerk, $1,200; treasurer, $1,200; deputy register of deeds, $600.

This puts the clerk of the court, register of deeds, deputy clerk of court and deputy register of deeds at a fixed salary. It also raises the salary of the register in probate $200 per year. The bill provides that all fees be paid into the county treasurer the first of each month. It further provides that a committee of two be appointed to fix the salaries of the county superintendents, of their respective districts the chair appointed J. B. Humphrey, W. H. Gray from the first district and A. Eager and A. White from the second.

A resolution that the county provide the security bond of the treasurer and pay the premium on the same was adopted.

Report on Licenses
The committee on licenses presented the following report on the number of licenses granted in the county and the amount received by the county from the several towns, cities and villages: Plymouth, 4; Village of Clinton, 4; Village of Orfordville, 3; City of Edgerton, 8; City of Beloit, 22; City of Janesville, 43. Making eighty-four saloons in operation in the county.

The amount paid to the county from these licenses is $7,350, divided as follows: Clinton for 1898-'99 and 1900, $650; Edgerton, 1900, $400; Janesville, 1900, $2,150; Orfordville, 1901, $150; Plymouth, 1901, $200; Edgerton, 1901, $400; Beloit, 1901, $1,100.

The report of the committee on claims of sheriffs, constables, justices change of venue and post mortem examinations consisted of a large number of bills which were allowed. The board then adjourned for dinner.

At the county board meeting, the afternoon session yesterday was largely given up to the reports of standing committees and county officers.

Clerk Starr's report showed that during the year his receipts were $2,243.08 and his expenditures $1,601.94 leaving a balance of $551.14.

County Treasurer Rich reported the year's receipts to be $178,660.84, the disbursements $174,209.66, leaving a balance of $4,451.18.

Clerk of the Court Goldin and Poor-masters Kenyon and Appleby made their reports and the board then adjourned until this morning.

MRS. FRED REHFELD
QUITE BADLY HURT

Serious Runaway Occurred About 10:30 O'clock This Morning—Horse Became Frightened.

Mrs. Fred Rehfeld was quite badly hurt in a runaway that occurred about 10:30 o'clock this morning. She was driving a single horse hitched to a platform wagon, loaded with seven milk cans of milk, down Locust street. The horse became frightened and started on a run down the street towards Western avenue. Mrs. Rehfeld kept hold of the lines but could not stop the frightened animal. When the end of Locust street was reached the horse made a quick turn onto Western avenue, tipping the wagon over and smashing it badly. Mrs. Rehfeld was thrown into the ditch with the cans of milk and received internal injuries besides breaking her arm and she was picked up and taken to a house on Western avenue and a doctor called. The horse was caught by some bystanders before he could do any more damage. The milk in the cans flew in all directions and there was quite a lake of milk in the ditch alongside of the road.

MR. JAMES MANOGUE HAS PASSED AWAY

An Old Resident of Rock County Died at His Home in Johnstown Wednesday.

James Manogue, sixty-five years of age, an old-time resident of Rock county, died at his home in the town of Johnstown Wednesday afternoon at 1:15 p. m. He was an old time resident of Rock county and highly respected by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn his death two sons, John and James of Johnstown and five daughters, Mrs. James Brown, of Whitewater; Mrs. Thomas Moorhead of Chicago and Misses Nellie, Annie and Sadie of Johnstown.

The funeral will be held Friday morning at 8 o'clock from his home and at 10:30 o'clock from St. Patrick's church in Whitewater. The interment will be in the Whitewater cemetery.

An Explanation
In last night's issue of the Gazette I was held up before the public as a very bad citizen trying to get rich from the sale of an old second hand overcoat, claimed to have been stolen; although I never had any description of one until yesterday. Chief Hogan said the one stolen was a new coat worn only three or four times. I haven't had any such coat in my possession. The knives I have they are new and I think they were probably stolen. How I am going to communicate "with the house" and find out if I have anything that belongs to them or have sold any coat that they own, they will either get it again or the value of it. All I want is to know that they own it.

AMENDMENTS TO ACT OF CONGRESSCorliss Bill Asserted To Be a Fair One
to Both the Shipper and Carrier.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 16.—The presentation in the house of representatives of the new bill proposing amendments to the interstate Commerce Act has attracted widespread attention. The measure was offered by Congressman John B. Corliss, of Michigan, who is a member of the house committee on interstate and foreign commerce. Senators and representatives and students of the railroad question, who have examined the new bill, generally commend the form that this legislation has taken. They assert that the bill is manifestly a fair one, both to shipper and carrier, and that many of the features so strenuously opposed by the carriers in the Cullom bill are not embraced in the pending measure.

A brief synopsis of the bill is as follows: Section 1 of the bill amends section 10 of the act, so that the transportation of or offer to transport traffic at any other rate, or upon any other terms or conditions than those stated in the published tariffs, or the payment of any rebate or departure, by any device, from published rates, without having first published a tariff applicable to the same, shall be deemed a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not less than $5,000 nor more than $20,000. That the making of any false representation as to weight or description of property by a shipper shall be punishable by a fine of from $1,000 to $5,000. All imprisonment penalties prescribed by the existing act are eliminated.

Section 2 amends section 15 of the act so that it shall be the duty of the commission, when, after a full hearing, it is found that any rate, relation of rates, classification of freight, or other practice of the carrier is in violation of any provision of the act, to order such change to be made therein as it (the commission) may determine to be necessary. In order to correct the wrong. The commission's orders shall take effect in not less than twenty days after service upon the carrier; but the carrier may apply to a circuit court of the United States for a review of any such order within that time, which shall of itself suspend the order for thirty days. If it plainly appears that the order is unlawful, or is unjust and unreasonable upon the facts, the court may suspend its operation during the pendency of proceedings. If, upon hearing, the court finds the order not to be lawful, just and reasonable, it shall vacate said order. Either party has the right to appeal to the supreme court, within thirty days; but such appeal shall not stay or supersede the order of the circuit court.

Section 3 amends section 16 of the act, so that the orders of the commission shall continue in force for two years only; but in case a change shall thereafter be made by the carrier in the rate or practice prescribed by such order, any party interested may file objection thereto with the commission within sixty days, and the commission may order a restoration thereof pending its investigation, which order shall not be subject to review; but a final order, pursuant to the investigation, shall be subject to the same right of review as the original order. In case of refusal or neglect to obey the commission's order, the circuit court having jurisdiction is required, upon petition of the commission, or any interested party, to enforce obedience thereof; the penalty for refusal or neglect to obey such order being $10,000 for every day of default. The circuit court is required to enjoin carriers and shippers from giving or receiving any concession from published rates, and the carrier from rendering greater service in any respect than that stated in the published tariffs.

Prof. Rosa Taylor of Chicago, vice-president Illinois Woman's Alliance, in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, says: "I suffered with a severe cold this winter which threatened to run into pneumonia. I tried different remedies, but I seemed to grow worse and the medicine upset my stomach. A friend advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and I found it was pleasant to take and relieved me at once. SENATOR WHITEHEAD ON TAXATION.

The Beloit Free Press, like a large majority of papers in the state, endorses Senator Whitehead on taxation, and discovers in the discussion a broader field than politics. The Free Press says in part: Notwithstanding the fact that Senator Whitehead fully appreciated the fact that many perplexing difficulties must be overcome before an equitable system could be built up, he fearlessly and honestly took the initiative and has ever since maintained his position. The sincerity of his efforts or purpose cannot be questioned, nor can his plan of placing all matters pertaining to the question of taxation in the hands of a commission be criticized.

When Senator Whitehead's identity with this legislation is considered, and when his recent Madison address reinforces and strengthens the position he has maintained, it would seem that the general public would have no difficulty in discriminating between real and practical reform, and reform for political purposes only. No one could more clearly express his fearlessness and devotion to what he considers right principles, his contempt for narrow partisan efforts when they are based upon arousing sentiment and prejudices in order to advance the selfish political fortunes of any individual. Men like Whitehead do not discriminate between duty and popularity, nor do their efforts in behalf of reform only find expression during a political campaign, when dividends may possibly be gained by agitation.

He calls the attention of the public to one fact, which, if carried out, would be of incalculable value and benefit to the tax payers of this state. Under the present system of making appropriations, the members of the legislature are obliged to proceed in a most unbusinesslike manner. Even the claims committee is unable to stem the tendency towards extravagance in expenditures, because it can have no method of knowing what disposition the legislature as a body will make of the committee's recommendations.

It is no exaggeration of conditions to say that, with the exception of the members of the committee on claims, there are probably less than members in the two houses who, during the session, could give even an approximate statement of the appropriations. This could all be avoided by inaugurating the budget system of appropriations containing as near as possible the amount of money required for every department of the state government. Under this system the legislature would only have to do with appropriations for unusual purposes, and the attention of members would be called to the expenditures which now escape attention. With a budget every dollar the state is called upon to expend would be subject to scrutiny because every item would appear as a charge against the several departments. Under the present system the only limitation is upon the number of employees and the different state boards and institutions, educational and otherwise. All have an interest in securing as large amounts as possible, and bring the greatest possible influence to bear in favor of their particular interest. These appropriations are raised upon at different times during the session, and unconsciously the legislature makes appropriations which have to be met by the imposition of additional taxes.

In calling attention to this matter Senator Whitehead again demonstrates that he has a capacity for giving attention to matters pertaining to the business administration of state affairs. No particular political capital is to be derived from such matters, but they illustrate the fact that the senator has been paying attention to the material and financial interests of the state in his capacity as a legislator and has not devoted his time to the political side of affairs, by attempting to revolutionize the existing order of things.

The diver dies without air to breathe. The consumptive dies without lungs to breathe the air, or of lungs rendered incapable of breathing by disease. The blood as it flows in and out of the lungs indicates the consumptive's progress. As the lungs grow weaker less oxygen is inhaled and the blood changes from scarlet to purple. Oxygen is the life of the blood as the blood is the life of the body.

The effect of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery upon weak lungs is to strengthen them, to enable the full oxygenation of the blood, arrest the progress of disease, and heal the inflamed tissues. Lung diseases have been and are being cured by "Golden Medical Discovery," in cases where deep-seated cough, frequent hemorrhage, emaciation, weakness, and night sweats have all pointed to a fatal termination by consumption.

"Some years ago I was almost a helpless victim of that dread disease—consumption," writes Mr. Chas. F. Ross, of St. Paul, Minn. "I was confined to my room for several months; my friends and neighbors had given up all hope of my recovery, until one day a friend advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and after I had taken the contents of the second bottle I began to improve. After taking six bottles I was, I honestly believe, delivered from the grave and entirely cured. I am now a strong and hearty man."

CHILE OFFERS A PLAN FOR PEACE

Deadlock in Pan-American Conference at City of Mexico Continues.

THE HAGUE TREATY INDORSED.

United States to Introduce Resolutions to the World Tribunal—Studying a More Comprehensive Plan for New Compact in Future.

City of Mexico, Jan. 16.—The plan for the adherence of the nations represented at the Pan-American congress to The Hague convention was introduced by the Chilean delegation after a long statement tending to show the advantages of The Hague convention and the impracticability of compulsory arbitration. The official plan for the adherence of the nations of America to The Hague convention is as follows: The states represented at the second International American conference resolve: First—To adhere to the conventions signed at The Hague by the powers represented at the International peace conference—(a) for the peaceful adjustment of international differences; (b) for the adaptation to maritime warfare of the principles of the Geneva convention of August 22 1864; (c) with respect to the laws and usages of land war.

Second—To confer, in order to attain that end, upon the United States of America and the United States of Mexico, signatory governments to said conventions, authority to take the necessary steps to establish (or secure) the adherence of non-signatory powers.

The delegates from Chile and Ecuador do not agree to the foregoing, and the Chilean plan, as now presented, is offered, it is claimed as a part of the obstructive tactics. The full text of the official plan is presented, the articles simply elaborating in diplomatic phraseology the summary referred to in the foregoing paragraph.

In an additional article the signatory nations empower the Mexican government, in the interval between the present and the next Pan-American conference, to communicate with other governments of America with a view to ascertaining the practicability of concluding a still more comprehensive plan of arbitration. If those steps are successful, a further treaty will be concluded between two or more of the nations in question, and, in any event, Mexico will report at the next conference as to the success of her efforts in this direction.

It should be noticed that the above is the only official plan for joining The Hague convention, that of Chile having been pressed, it is claimed, merely for obstructive purposes.

"Tempest in Teapot" Ended.

Chicago, Jan. 16.—The Woman's club voted last night to exonerate Mrs. Robert Hall Wiles completely from all suspicion of having written any anonymous letters. This result was attained after a bitter fight that lasted all day and far into the evening. For two hours before the close husbands of some of the members hung about the doors of the clubrooms, waiting to take their wives home to dinner. This ends the biggest "tempest in a teapot" ever known at Chicago. Hundreds of columns of reading matter have been printed about the gossip affair. "We will make you president now," said Miss N. Halsted to Mrs. Wiles as she left the meeting, "and I will start the movement to-morrow."

Miss Marion Mason to Wed.

New York, Jan. 16.—The engagement is announced of Miss Marion Mason, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. Lawrence Mason of Boston, to Richard Wilson, Jr., the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Wilson and a brother of Mrs. Ogden Golet. Mrs. Michael Herbert, Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt and Mr. Orme Wilson, who married Miss Carrie Astor.

Seattle Steamer on Reef.

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 16.—The sound steamer Fairhaven, operating between this city, Laconner, and way ports, struck a rock or reef, a short distance from Utsaladdy, early in the morning during a fog and soon after sank in ten feet of water. The passengers and crew succeeded in reaching the lifeboats in safety and rowed to Utsaladdy.

Secures Alimony Twice.

Pana, Ill., Jan. 16.—Mrs. Hanna C. Sprinkle, residing near here, has been divorced from her husband, Simon J. Sprinkle, a wealthy farmer residing near here, for the second time and was allowed $5,000 alimony. Two years ago she was divorced from Sprinkle and received $10,000 alimony. This makes $15,000 in two years that Mrs. Sprinkle has secured through marriage, divorce and alimony.

Loss of $250,000 in St. Louis Fire.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 16.—The four-story building at 1005 St. Charles street, occupied by the Premium Shirt Manufacturing company, was burned yesterday and the contents were destroyed, causing an estimated loss of $250,000, partly covered by insurance.

Danderine

GREW THIS HAIR

Even when absolutely healthy to begin with, it can be made to grow much faster and longer than it does normally.

The above photographs of Miss Frances Marie Knowlton show what care, persistence and a good hair invigorating tonic will do in the way of producing hair. This little girl has had Danderine applied to her hair and scalp regularly ever since she was three months of age, with the result that she now has the longest and most beautiful head of hair ever possessed by a child of her age. Frances Marie is the daughter of Dr. F. W. Knowlton, one of the proprietors of Danderine. The doctor says that her hair is growing much faster than she is, and he is sure it will be long enough to touch the floor when she stands erect by the time she is four years old.

IT ASTONISHES EVERYBODY.

Miss Ella C. Schroeder who has the most aristocratic patronage of any one of her profession, briefly describes her wonderful success with this great Hair Tonic in the following letter:

THE KNOWLTON DANDERINE CO., 154 Lake St., Chicago.
Gentlemen:—It is with pleasure that I give you testimonial as to the merits of DANDERINE which I am using every day in my practice. I have not had a case where DANDERINE has failed to cure dandruff and falling hair and to start a luxurious growth, even under the most trying conditions. In some cases of long standing, results have been perfectly astonishing to both my patients and myself. I have over a hundred persons whom I am treating regularly, and there is not one but who is enthusiastic over the wonderful work of DANDERINE. At the Chicago Beach Hotel, where I spend a great deal of time I have a large number of clients who are using DANDERINE regularly, with the most delightful results. From my experience with DANDERINE, in several hundred cases, I feel that I cannot recommend it too highly. With sincere wishes for your unbounded success, I remain, Yours respectfully, Ella C. Schroeder

Danderine does the work that is the reason why there is MORE OF IT USED THAN ALL OTHER HAIR TONICS COMBINED. DANDERINE is absorbed most eagerly by the scalp, and its properties are so invigorating and strengthening that it makes the hair as fertile soil is to produce vegetation. It is working wonders everywhere. We guarantee that one twenty-five cent bottle of it will do the hair more good than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. Be sure you get the genuine, made only by The Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, Ill., 25c, 50c, and $1.00 per bottle. All druggists keep Danderine or will order it for you. To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

Kodol

Dyspepsia Cure

Digests
what you
Eat

In speaking of indigestion, Dr. Lewis says: "It is deplorable that so many hundreds of thousands of Americans suffer from indigestion. It means that the blood of the nation is becoming impure; for undigested food poisons the blood. Unless a method is devised for overcoming this malady, our race must deteriorate."

Many persons use soda tablets to neutralize fermenting food; this only makes a chemical receptacle out of the stomach, and injures its sensitive structures. Others feed on pepsin, which is better, but not sufficient, for it digests only albuminous foods.

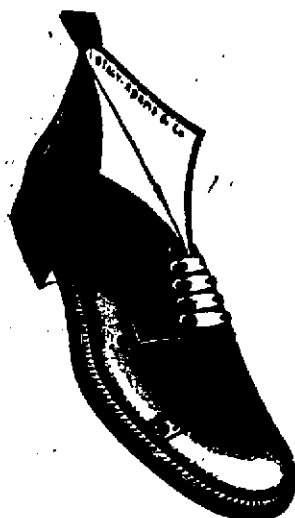

The preparation best fitted to relieve and absolutely cure indigestion is KODOL DYSPEPSIA CURE. It contains every known digestant and digests every kind of food. Its use is a common sense method of treating all stomach troubles, and the results are always certain.
